Among the many benefits you receive through your membership, one is showcasing your support for undergraduate research with our CUR Member logo on your institution's website, email signatures, and social media pages. Sharing this logo demonstrates to the higher education community that your institution is committed to the advancement of undergraduate research. It also shows prospective students the unique network and opportunities they can have to advance their skills in undergraduate research on your campus and through CUR's resources. We encourage you to use the attached CUR Member logo and place this on your website, social channels, and/or email signatures. Please make sure to link it to the CUR homepage: www.cur.org. You can also share this on your social channels by tagging us @CURinAction or #CURinAction.

With your membership, your campus has access to activate their free membership as well. Please share the following steps with your campus adminsitrators, faculty, and students:

Did you know that your institution has an enhanced membership with CUR?

This means you can join CUR at no cost to you.

Simply follow the link below, complete a short form, and we'll take care of the rest. After your enhanced membership benefits have been activated, you'll have the opportunity to:

- Collaborate with nearly 14,000 members to discuss issues, ideas, and share resources on undergraduate research.
- Gain access to a Member Resource Library of over 100 resources, tips and tricks for virtual learning and teaching, and other valuable content to strengthen your undergraduate research programs.
- A subscription to our scholarly journal, Scholarship and Practice of Undergraduate Research.
  - Exclusive member-only programs such as CUR Conversations on evolving hot topics.
    - Discounts for event registration and publication purchases and more!

Activate your benefits by going to CUR.org/ACTIVATE
